LB 363 changes provisions related to requests for copies of public records.

Section 1 specifies that a custodian is not required to copy any public records that are available on the custodian's website. Provision is made for requesters who do not have access to the website. In addition, when determining the cost of making photocopies, the custodian may include a reasonably apportioned cost of the supplies such as paper, toner, and equipment.

Under the bill, the added cost used to calculate a fee for records shall not include any charges for the existing salary or pay obligation with respect to the first six hours of searching, identifying, or copying.

LB 363 has the possibility to impact all state agencies that act as custodians of public records. The degree to which this potential impact is felt will vary widely. Not all state agencies can be contacted to provide information regarding the bill's impact, so the reader of this note should be aware that any impact identified here is at best a sampling of statewide impact. If agencies realize additional costs, they will address these in future budget and deficit requests.

The Nebraska State Historical Society (NSHS) estimates that the bill's provisions will have some impact on that agency. Currently, in the Library/Archives, the NSHS has a fee structure that includes search fees. Under the "six hour" provision, this fee cannot be charged as it is currently utilized. That revenue loss is estimated at $78,000 per year. This revenue will have to be made up with General Funds in order to provide the same level of service. There is no basis to disagree with this estimate.

The Secretary of State and the Department of Administrative Services estimate no additional costs associated with the bill.

Explanation of Estimate: LB 363 amends portions of the statute pertaining to public records. Changes include:
 1) not requiring a custodian to copy public records if the records are available on the web site; 2) allows the custodian of the public records to include a portion of the cost of supplies (paper, tone, equipment, etc.); prohibits including the cost of salary for the first six hours of searching, identifying, or copying a public records request; 4) allows a service charge for public records requests that require longer than 6 hours to fulfill; and 4) establishes timelines for providing an estimated cost to the requesting party and a response from the requesting party.

These changes have no fiscal impact on Administrative Services.
